

Grievances and Resolutions - Background

On May 7, 2015 ADM announced its Commitment to No-Deforestation and to building traceable and transparent agricultural supply chains that protect forests worldwide. Immediately following the launch of our Commitment to No Deforestation we became members of The Forest Trust (TFT), a non-profit organization that works with companies to implement responsible sourcing commitments. Since that time, ADM and TFT have been working closely together on implementing the commitment globally.

The commitment includes provisions related to no deforestation, no expansion on peat, and no exploitation with a focus on our palm and soy supply chains. The no exploitation provisions are in line with ADM's Human Rights Policy, which is aimed at ensuring that our colleagues, our suppliers and their contractors respect workers' rights and comply with all applicable local, national and international laws governing working conditions. Both commitments include strict prohibitions against the use of child labor, forced labor and bonded labor, and include several other guidelines to protect workers and communities from exploitation.

ADM is working hard to develop supply chains that meet our commitments. To that end, we invite stakeholders who have issues or concerns related to the implementation of our policies to share these with us through this portal.
